STEWARDSHIP

"Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared..."

Nehemiah 8:10

Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. However, He expects us to share our blessings with those who are in need.

From the . . .

Parish Administrator

From the Desk of Fr. Beighlie

It has been a really difficult week for all in Our Lady Queen of Peace. I'm saddened by the hurt so many feel. But, we are Our Lady Queen of Peace. We are a people who care for each other. We are, or at least we are trying to be, people of good will.

In the weeks ahead, we will move forward. I don't plan on canceling any meeting or postponing any programs. In everything we do, we will actively seek and promote the good of the people in this parish.

I am thankful for all of you who have expressed so much support for me as I take on the role of Parish Administrator. I promise each of you my prayers and my best efforts to meet the needs of all of us here. Parishioners have concerns and those concerns will be addressed.

For now, I pray, and I ask you to join me in this prayer, for the well-being of the whole parish community, for the strength of the Holy Spirit to guide us along the way that lies before us, for the peace for which we so ardently long.

Fr. Jim Beighlie, C.M.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Boundaries and Expectations

This is part three of an eight week series of excerpts from the book, What Kids Need to Succeed by Peter L. Benson, PhD., Judy Galbraith, M.A., and Pamela Espeland.

"Young people need to know what is expected of them and whether activities and behaviors are 'in bounds' or 'out of bounds'. The more a child has clear, consistent boundaries and high expectations, the more likely it is that he or she will grow up healthy.

Family Boundaries- Parents set clear rules and consequences for their kids' behavior. They monitor their children's whereabouts.

School Boundaries- Schools set clear rules and consequences for student behavior.

Neighborhood Boundaries- Neighbors take responsibility for monitoring young people's behavior.

Adult Role Models- Parents and other adults model positive, responsible behavior.

High Expectations- Parents and teachers encourage kids to do well."

Way to go Parents of Confirmation Youth!

Thanks to the students, teachers, and the adults who helped make our Confirmation retreat a Holy Spirit filled event. We had 100% attendance! Thanks parents for getting your child here for the retreat.
