John 16:13

When we let the daily pressures of life trouble us we begin to believe that we are responsible for taking care of everything. This causes us to frantically cling to both our time and treasure. Yet, Jesus tells us not to be troubled or afraid. Take a deep breath and place your trust in God. When you do, you can be a better steward of all that God has placed in your care.

St. Jane Saggio and Companions

What an awesome picnic we had last Saturday!! Everything turned out wonderful thanks to Jane Saggio, our picnic committee, some divine intervention and all the parishioners who stepped forward to make this event a success. In the days preceding the picnic, we thought we were facing a crisis. The weather forecast for Saturday predicted rain and clouds all day long, there were issues with parking and difficulties finding busses to shuttle people back and forth between parking lots, there were not very many people signed up to work the booths and the picnic committee did not have much help from the brand new pastor....and yet they did not give up, they pulled it off. The weather turned out great, the entertainment was interesting with local bands from the parish and an appearance from our very own Sisters of the Yahoo, and as usual the food tasted too good. I must have put on 5 pounds just walking by the food booths. I did not realize that you could fry so many things. Besides funnel cakes, who would have thought that you could also deep fry Twinkies, hamsters, and Snicker bars? Next year I will have to insist on some heart healthy foods like deep fried rice cakes and deep fried carrot sticks.

Speaking of the weather, we need to take the time to thank whoever was responsible for the little miracle we had. The Sisters of the Yahoo stepped forward to take credit since the sun came out as they began their singing. However, I think that the Pink Sisters would take exception to that claim since they were asked to pray for good weather a couple of weeks before the picnic. (...An idea just popped into my head for a new, "made for T.V." reality show.....Ninja Nuns! It would be a family friendly show where nuns would fight to the death armed only with holy water and those big rosaries that they wear around their waists.....hmhhh...I think I better stop before I get struck by lightning). So, let's just agree to give the credit to God and as you read this article, please say a little prayer thanking Him for the good weather and ask Him to send down blessings on all those who prayed for us.

Financially speaking, we are still waiting for some bills to be turned in, but it looks like we might clear around $15,000 which is great in light of the difficulties we were facing. We had hoped for a little more, but we purchased some materials to make booths that will be used for years to come. Besides, I don't like to judge the success of the picnic merely on profits. For me, the biggest sign of success was that people were having fun! (Except when Fr. Beighlie was in our face with that camera of his....FYI...all of his pictures from the picnic are on our web site under: "recent events")

Finally, because of their perseverance, faith and dedication, I would love to declare May 1st as the Feast day of St. Jane Saggio and companions. But that day is already taken by St. Joseph. So, Jane and all those unnamed people who worked so hard behind the scenes will have to settle for a very HEART FELT THANK YOU from the whole parish for a job well done!!!

An Invitation... To The Women of OLQP

You are cordially invited to join in our summer bible study. This summer, our book is "A Woman of Love". Using the inspiring story of Ruth and Naomi, women can learn to love the hard to love, discover the true meaning of unfailing love, and learn how our friendships in Christ can be richer and more redemptive than friendships of the world. We will meet each week to go over the questions we have read and prepared each day. The study is nine weeks. We will need to begin the first week in June to be completed by the first week in August. We will decide together if we'll take any days off. Please call Maureen Turney 314-277-9589, or Joan Ross 677-3278, if you are interested. We typically meet during the day, but if enough would prefer evening, we are open to doing two groups. We will meet on Monday or Tuesday. Please call soon so we can order books and have our starting date set before Memorial Day! Enrich your faith in the slower pace of summer, share with other women in the parish, and grow closer to God! Please join us.

YOUTH MINISTRY

On Purpose Parenting

Do you live day to day on autopilot or do you live your daily life on purpose for God and your family? We are not victims of life but God created us all on purpose. Not one of us is an accident. God created us with love, on purpose. He used moms and dads to help Him with this purpose. His mission for us as parents is for us to pour His love out into our family and the world around us. Parenting is a great gift and responsibility personally handed to us from Abba, Our Father.

If we think of parenting as a football team, sometimes we are playing defense and sometimes we are playing offense but we are always playing on God's special team. Football players don't accidentally stumble into a game. They choose to play on purpose. They choose to get knocked down time and time again with the hope of the team making a touchdown. If we are living our life on purpose for God and our family, we will get knocked down time and time again, but if we stay focused on the game plan it will all be for an amazing purpose, to pass on God's love to our family and the world around us. Thanks moms for parenting on purpose and bringing so much love into our world by loving your family. Happy Mother's Day!

Thanks to the YOUTH who Worked the Picnic

Thanks to the many youth that worked the Parish Picnic last Saturday. Thanks to the 7th grade youth and Mrs. Thomure who filled 3,000 water balloons and thanks to the many youth from grade school thru high school who helped work at the picnic in any way. It was so inspiring seeing many youth working along side their parents at the picnic. We have an amazing parish family.

Thanks for your Prayers!

Continue to pray for our Confirmation Candidates - they will be confirmed here at OLQP on Wednesday, May 12th, at 7:30pm by Archbishop Carlson.

St. Vincent De Paul

When you give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the lives of those who are poor.

Young at Heart will be having lunch at Red Lobster (on South Lindbergh) Monday, May 10th, at 1:00pm.

Young at Heart

Memorial Mass

A memorial Mass for Henry Geerdes will be held Saturday, May 22nd at 10am

OLQP Parish Blood Drive Monday, June 21, 2 to 7pm

Every two seconds someone needs blood. Today's medical advancements allow patients to live longer, healthier lives. This creates a greater demand for blood products than ever before.

With less than 5% of the population donating blood, the Red Cross continuously strives to educate the public about the importance of blood donation. The Red Cross offers opportunities to donate in many communities and supplies blood throughout the nation, to small community hospitals, as well as large medical centers and teaching institutions.

Retirement Congratulations Mrs. Perez

We wish to show our appreciation to Mrs. Perez for her 32 years of teaching at OLQP. Keep Sunday, May 23, from 4 to 6pm open to join us. More information to come next week.

"The most important person on earth is a mother. She cannot claim the honor of having built Notre Dame Cathedral. She need not. She has built something more magnificent than any cathedral - a dwelling for an immortal soul, the tiny perfection of her baby's body."
