The readings for next Sunday, May 11, are:

- First Reading.....Acts 2:1-11
- Second Reading.....1 Corinthians 12:3-7, 12-13
- Gospel.....John 20:19-23

Our readings give us two accounts of the Pentecost event. In Luke's account "a driving wind" is heard. In John's, the Lord "breathes" upon his disciples. The apostles, even though they have been gathered together in the upper room out of fear, are now given the power of the Holy Spirit, the life-giving heart of the Church. They are also to do what Jesus did: forgive sins, heal divisions, bring about reconciliation and joy to all. All Christians are commissioned and given power to carry on this mission.

Life Focus: Language is important in sharing the Christian message with others. Recall an experience when your words were terribly misunderstood.

STEWARDSHIP

"Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." (Matthew 28:19-20)

In Our Lord's last words to the Apostles before ascending to heaven He makes it clear that our Baptism comes with an obligation. We are to do all that Jesus commanded us – which means caring for the poor, teaching the children and using our gifts to carry on the work of the Lord.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Building Relationships and Understanding

As parents, we are continually teaching our teens how to communicate. Are you teaching your teen communication techniques that build relationships and understanding? The way we communicate with our children and others speaks volumes to our teens about our integrity, compassion, and values. Communication can be compared to the weather. On beautiful days it is much easier for us to think positive thoughts and truly appreciate life. When it has been cold and rainy for days it takes a lot more effort to stay positive. Communication with our teens is the same. Make time to visit with your teen daily even if for a short time to keep communication open. This daily communication also makes it easier for your teen to share struggles or challenges they might be facing. This is like a beautiful day. If we don't take time to visit with our teens daily, communication might become like a cold and distant rainy day. We all want the best for our children so try to give them your best when it comes to communication. Enjoy building relationships and understanding with your teen children.

Catholic Home Missions

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Next Sunday, Catholics in parishes across the nation are being asked to contribute to the Catholic Home Missions Appeal.

Since 1998, the Catholic Home Missions Appeal has been an expression of stewardship, in which the faithful of more prosperous parishes in the United States give generously to assist the poorer mission parishes at home in the United States.

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal provides much needed funding for Catholics who live in the poor, remote and rural areas such as Alaska, Appalachia, the deep South, the Rocky Mountain states, the southwest, Puerto Rico and the island dioceses in the Pacific and Caribbean.

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal will be taken up throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis on the weekend of May 10 and 11, 2008. I encourage you to be generous to this appeal which supports our brothers and sisters in the faith in so many poor, remote and rural parts of the United States.

Invoking God's blessing upon you and your home, I remain

Yours devotedly in Christ,
Most Reverend Raymond L. Burke
Archbishop of St. Louis

"In February 2005, Sara Scantlin of Kansas awoke from the 'persistent vegetative state' she had been in since a drunk driver hit her in 1984 when she was only 18... 'Since September 22, 1984, Sara Scantlin had never uttered a word, her brain so badly damaged... that experts said she would spend the rest of her life in her own silent world.[Since she awoke, her parents] have listened in astonishment as she reels off the names of relatives, former pets, friends from high school and dates. ...Her doctor, Bradley Scheel, says critical pathways in Sara's brain... have regenerated and kicked back into life. ...A very important part of this case is the fact that throughout her 20 year coma, Sarah could see, hear and understand what was going on around her."

Funeral Luncheon Coordinator Still Needed

We are still in need of a Funeral Luncheon Coordinator. Maybe 3 or 4 people could share this and work in teams with no one person having the total responsibility. One of our parishioners has kindly offered to make all the Mostaccioli. If you feel a calling toward this Ministry, please call the Rectory Office as soon as possible. We are no longer able to offer this wonderful service to our parishioners until we have a Coordinator.

Fundraising Efforts

Please assist OLQP School in collecting the following:

Box Tops for Education Best Choice labels
 Tyson A+ labels Campbell's labels

Nestle Pure Life labels

Also used cell phones, ink cartridges and toner cartridges. Please leave the items in the lobby of church or send to the school office.

To brighten your day.....

May you always have:

Enough happiness to make you sweet,
 Enough trials to make you strong,
 Enough sorrow to keep you human,
 Enough hope to make you happy.

Always put yourself in other's shoes.
 If you feel that it hurts you,
 It probably hurts the other person, too.

The happiest of people don't necessarily
 Have the best of everything;
 They just make the most of everything
 That comes along the way.

Happiness lies for:
 those who cry,
 those who have searched,
 and those who tried,
 for only they can appreciate the importance of people who have touched their lives.

Love begins with a smile,
 Grows with a kiss
 And ends with a tear.
