STEWARDSHIP

"...your abundance at the present time should supply their needs..." (2 Corinthians 8:14)

Economic crisis can teach us many valuable stewardship lessons. We are quickly realizing that as individuals and as a society we really did not need everything that we wanted. We are also learning to count our blessings and to see that we have been abundantly blessed by God. And, hopefully, we are becoming more willing to share our gifts with those who truly are in need.

Pastor's Notes

In the coming few days we welcome Father James Beighlie, C.M. to Our Lady, Queen of Peace Parish as the new associate pastor. His last name is pronounced BEEGLEE, and the initials behind his name stand for Congregation of the Mission. The C.M.'s are better known as the Vincentian Fathers, named after St. Vincent de Paul who founded the order about 400 years ago to work with the poor, the formation of the clergy, the education of youth and to work in rural areas. He is excited about coming here and I am certainly happy to have him here assisting in all of the various things happening around the parish.

Next weekend we will have our First Saturday Mass and it will be held at Chapel Hill Cemetery. Mass will begin at 9am with coffee and donuts afterwards. Have a safe and joyous holiday weekend.

YOUTH MINISTRY

The Art of Affirmation

We all need to hear encouragement when we are making good choices, but teens especially need to hear this from their parents. How often do we, as parents, stop to tell our son or daughter how much we appreciate something they did or acknowledge them for making a good choice? Is it at least as often as we "correct" them for inappropriate behaviors? We must communicate clear expectations and set realistic boundaries with our teens. If our child chooses to live outside the boundaries we must have specific consequences for their choices but we must also remember to affirm them for positive choices.

The art of affirmation is a habit of acknowledging the goodness in our lives. This world has much more goodness than anything else but we often forget to stop and notice it. When we take time to stop and notice the goodness in our teen child it also teaches him or her how to stop and notice the goodness in their own lives. Enjoy teaching your teen the art of affirmation by letting them hear how proud you are of their positive choices.

Don't Forget to Join us on Sunday Evenings

All high school youth are invited to join us on Sunday evenings from 6-8:30pm all summer long (note, we will not meet on July 5th or July 26th). We meet in the "Bear's Den" on the lower level of the school building on the edge of the playground. The more teens attending the more fun we have and the more faith we share. See you this Sunday evening!

OLQP Blood Drive

A big "thank you" to all who helped with the Blood Drive.

Thanks to those who braved the heat to work at the Blood Drive and to donate blood. We had 56 sign-ups and 48 productive pints.

A special thanks to Linda who always does a good job on publicity.

Many lives were saved or enriched by your generosity.

Joan Oermann

Thank You

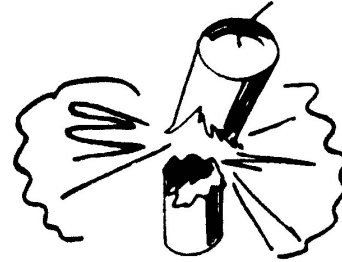

We would like to express our sincere gratitude for the kindness and support our family has received after the passing of our dear mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, and friend, Shirley Heibeck.

The many cards, notes, and well wishes we've received have been very comforting.

Thank you to her many friends for their support as Shirley's health declined. It is a blessing to know that we are part of such a loving and caring parish family.

Sincerely,
The Heibeck Family

HAVE A SAFE AND HAPPY 4TH OF JULY!
