The readings for next Sunday, July 7, are:

- First Reading..... Zechariah 9:9-10
- Second Reading Romans 8:9, 11-13
- Gospel Matthew 11:25-30

Jesus praises God's goodness, which brings the truly humble into sharing in the love that joins the Father and the Son. Those who depend only on their own strength and knowledge will never understand God's wisdom and wonderful care. Jesus encourages his listeners to come to him if they are wearied by life. He will share their burdens and restore their sense of balance and peace. People must have the courage and humility to believe in the power of peace and gentleness over aggression and hard-heartedness.

Life Focus: What are your childlike qualities? What makes it difficult for you to be childlike? Recall a time in your life when you found peace by turning a certain "burden" over to Jesus.

STEWARDSHIP

'He tapped Peter on the side and awakened him, saying, 'Get up quickly.' the chains fell from his wrists.'

(Acts 12:7)

Just as God miraculously freed Peter from prison, He can free us from the chains that the pursuit of possessions can wrap around us. We just need to strive to live a life of stewardship - putting God first in our schedules, in our days and in our budgets.

We pray for the repose of the soul

Mary Rosecan, cousin of Bill Voss

May God welcome them home, fill them with peace, and bless those who will miss them.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Generosity is Contagious

As parents, we have an awesome responsibility to pass on the gift of faith to our sons and daughters. If you are reading this you have already taken the responsibility of bringing your children to Mass on Saturday evening or Sunday seriously. Way to go!

Another way of teaching our teens about faith is to teach them to be generous. The easiest way to teach our teens to be generous is for them to watch us be generous in our lives. If they have witnessed us walking the walk of generosity they can't help but be encouraged to do their part to make the world a better place. Sometimes teens don't know how to get started. Parents can give their children guidance.

A perfect example of this occurred last Monday when our parish hosted a Blood Drive. A teen and her mom came in to give blood together. Three confirmation students worked at the blood drive while their parents donated blood. It was so beautiful to witness all the generous people who came in to give. Thanks to the generosity of all the givers, Joan Oermann who organized the event and the teens who helped, the world is forever a better place. If we can teach our teens that every kind deed done with sincere love changes the world forever we will have an epidemic of generosity. Enjoy passing on the faith to your teens!

Please pray for our Teens!

July 11 - July 13, teens and 16 adults will travel to Springfield, MO for the annual Steubenville Catholic Youth Conference. Please pray that their hearts will be changed forever.

July 19 - 26, 9 teens and 6 adults will travel to the Appalachian Mountains to learn from the people and help make the world a better place.

July 30 - 31, is our annual camping, float trip. Pray that we stay safe while having a good time.

August 3 - 7, youth and adults put on our annual Vacation Bible School.

Vacation Bible School Volunteer Meeting
Tuesday, July 1st we will have a meeting in the Library from 7 to 8:30 pm for teachers and youth who plan on volunteering the week of VBS. If you cannot attend please fill out a volunteer registration form that will be in the bulletin next weekend, along with the student registration form.

Festival Follow-up Meeting Thursday, July 10, 7 pm - Library

What went right? Can we improve? We will always discuss how we can tweek some items to run more efficiently. Perhaps our communication link can be improved. Maybe you have something on your mind and this can be the time to share a new or better idea. Please mark your calendar and see you there.

Calendar Scheduling

It's that time of year again when you need to schedule all your meetings (in writing) with the Rectory Office. Sometimes we have experienced conflicts with organizations wanting to use the same facilities. By letting the Rectory office know your plans we can avoid these disappointments. Just a reminder, even if you always had the same time and place for your meeting last year we will not know that you intend to continue. Typically we redo the calendar at the beginning of our fiscal year, July 1st.

Parish Blood Drive Thank You

Many thanks to all those who helped with the Parish Blood Drive. Linda, who always does such a great job with bulletin notices; those who unloaded and reloaded equipment; Terry and her Terrific Teens who are so helpful and polite in the canteen and to all those who came to donate blood.

We had 22 deferrals (next time more broccoli and less tea!) and 54 productive pints. Think of all the lives we saved!!

Thanks again and God bless,
Joan Oermann

St. Vincent De Paul

We do want to hear from you. We do need you to act as our eyes and ears. Is there a neighbor of yours who is in temporary need because of loss of a job or is experiencing a financial crisis? We may be able to assist them during a difficult time. St. Vincent de Paul would like to hear from you. Please leave a message at the Rectory Office, 671-3062, for us.

Stephen Ministry

What do Stephen Ministers do? They offer caring Christian friendship and concerned listening to people when they need it most. Every call and session is confidential. If you are in need of someone like that please call Gene 375-3774. A Stephen Minister is here for you.

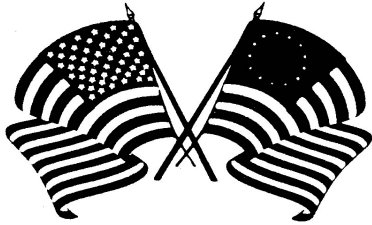

God bless you!

Pro-Life

Knowing that every person is made in God's beautiful and holy image, how can we presume to cut short another's life before God had given every opportunity for conversion?
