STEWARDSHIP

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve...As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15

When we commit to serve the Lord, we must be willing to become a partner in the work of the Lord. A partner is a person who invests time, talent and treasure. If we say we serve God, we must actually do something!

*Absent from the body present with our Lord.
In your kindness pray for the repose of the soul*

Louis Kalesch,

brother of Terry Kalesch

Jacob Konrad,

father of Maria Webb

May God welcome them home, fill them with peace, and bless those who will miss them.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Rules - Relationship = Rebellion

Rules + Relationship = Responsibility

"This quote provides the framework for an effective discipline approach. All children need boundaries and limitations in order to become more responsible human beings. At the same time, if the relationship with them is sacrificed at the expense of the rules, then there is the likelihood of rebellious behavior -- especially as they enter the teen years."

(Parenting 101, School Tools, Catholic Family Services, Jan. 2009)

All teens show some level of responsible behaviors and some level of rebellious behaviors. As parents, we want to see a greater degree of responsible behaviors from our teens. Building and strengthening our relationship with our teen children takes time and commitment on our part. We must make it a priority to spend quality time with each of our teen children weekly. It is imperative that we listen to them without interrupting or belittling their concerns. Good listening and communication skills are a must in building healthy relationships with our teens. It is so important to listen so you can hear the message between the words. Resist the temptation to "fix" your teens problems. Being a good listener helps them sort things out so they can problem solve or just vent some frustrations in an appropriate manner. Enjoy setting clear boundaries for your teens, while building a healthy relationship with them and watch your teen's level of responsibility grow to new heights.

Sunday Evening Youth Nights

All high school youth are invited to join us on Sunday evenings from 6 - 8pm in the Bear's Den. Our new school schedule begins this Sunday as we meet from 6 - 8pm. This will give the teens time to get home and finish any homework they might have for Monday morning. Bring a friend and join us Sunday evening.

Thanks A Bunch

Thanks to Pete Ostlund and Lori Carbone for chaperoning our bowling event last Sunday evening. Fourteen youth had an awesome time. Thanks to everyone who participated.

SCHOOL NEWS

Open House

Sunday, August 23

On Sunday, August 23rd, our parish grade school will celebrate the start of the 2009/2010 school year with our annual Open House. Festivities are from 8am to 12:30pm and will be held in the classrooms and courtyard. The Home and School Association will once again host a family BBQ beginning at 11am (in the courtyard). Donuts, juice and coffee will be available for the early birds and BBQ for those who choose to join us later. This is an opportunity to meet the teachers and experience the "spirit" of our school. As parishioners of OLQP you are connected to us! Whether directly or indirectly, we are all a part of a parish family! So please join us and help celebrate the beginning of a new school year. Classes resume, Monday, August 31st.

Harvest Moon Auction
Calling All OLQP Parishioners!!

On behalf of the Harvest Moon Auction Committee 2009, it's that time of year again, that I am asking for all your help to make this year's auction the best year yet!! We are asking for donations of new items for our silent auction, oral auction and blackboard auction. All items, big or small are needed and we will even come pick them up!! Examples of items include, but are definitely not limited to, host a tea party, a birthday party, or a pool party. How about getting some friends together and donate a luau, a murder mystery, dinner party, or a wine tasting party? Or, do you sell Creative Memories, Tupperware, Pampered Chef or Purses? Make a basket of your favorite items! Grab a gift certificate, big or small, to a restaurant or a store, we can always use one to combine with other items, or use by itself. Sometimes even the business you work for will donate if they are asked personally by you instead of a letter! So please, help us make our "23rd Annual Auction" successful. The date this year is Saturday, October 10th, 2009. As the school and parish continue to grow the proceeds are helping all of us!!

Thank you all for your support! Any questions please call me!
